

first wireless network;

detecting whether the mobile station is camped on to said first wireless network;

if the mobile station is camped on to said first wireless network then establishing a connection with the mobile station over the first wireless network; and if the mobile station is not camped on to said first wireless network then, forwarding an alert to the mobile station via the second wireless network using said stored address of the mobile station on the second wireless network, receiving an indicator that the mobile station has camped on to said first wireless network, and establishing a connection with the mobile station over the first wireless network after [that] the mobile station camps on to said first wireless network.

REMARKS

The Applicants wish to thank the Examiner for the his time and consideration during the interview of July 16, 1999.

The claims as amended distinguish the invention from the prior art. Thus, issuance of a Notice of Allowance is respectfully requested.

The Office is hereby authorized to charge any additional fees or credit any overpayments under 37 C.F.R. § 1.16 or § 1.17 to Deposit Account No. 11-0600.

The Examiner is invited to contact the undersigned at (202) 220-4200 to discuss the application.

Respectfully submitted,

Date:

7/23/99

Paul T. Qualey
(Reg. No. P-45,027)

KENYON & KENYON
1500 K Street, N.W.
Suite 700
Washington, DC 20005
Phone: (202) 220-4200
Facsimile: (202) 220-4201

196340